In answer to your note I would say that in order to close the sale of the collection before my returning to Europe I would accept for same the sum of three hundred dollars. ($300) cash down. Mr. Clark bought same 10 years duplicate of what I have & gave me $400.

Hoping that you will accept my proposition I remain yours truly

Gents I am in receipt of your favor dated May 2d & I am disposed to accept $ 200 for the Edmunds Vases on the condition that you take them at Spruden's office, Payt Spot cash. I am tired of trying to sell them but I assure you that I could get much more for them Italy. A prompt answer will oblige

Yours truly E Marchi

Gentlemen

I am in receipt of your postal dated from yesterday & I am surprised to see that you call the Vases I offer you "Inferior Articles" they have been admired by many intelligent collectionists in Italy where I think people know how to judge these kind of Antiquities.

As my last price I made except for the whole collection of vases I will name the sum of $175 cash when you send to take the vases, declining to stand any breakage Hoping you will accept my proposal I remain

Yours truly

E. Marchi
